

DELIVERING RESULTS.

Ethane Booster Station

UNION

project highlights

Onshore construction of new ethane booster station

- Installation of two 400 HP pumps
- Installation of power distribution center building
- Associated civil, fabrication, piping installation, electrical hook up and final commissioning

project highlights

New construction ethane booster station

Location: Midstream South Louisiana

Year: 2016

Contract value: $3 M

Duration: 4 months

Peak manpower: 20

Direct man-hours: 20,000

Subcontractors: 2

Services provided:

- Project Management
- Construction
- Fabrication
- Automation
- Scaffolding
- Coatings

Project achievements

Zero recordable safety incidents

Completed on schedule

Whatever your asset management needs, Danos has the resources, expertise and experience to serve as your strategic partner. With our comprehensive service offering and proven safety performance we can help you get the job done right.